On page 1 of the 2nd section we are publishing a letter from Mr. Sistrunk, FSA supervisor of Grenada county. We do this in fairness to him, and not because our mind has changed about the FSA.

Our experience as Chairman of the Farm Debt Adjustment Committee, an auxiliary unit of the FSA, led us to believe that the FSA (as then constituted) did not want a client who was worth a damn, or one who had any moral responsibility for debts incurred. It appeared to us, on the contrary, that the FSA rather preferred a fellow who did not give a damn whether he AGREED to pay one hundred or two hundred dollars for a forty dollar mule. I well remember that our committee used all our influence to get Will Criss' boy—who, I believe, was honestly trying to better his condition and who would have felt a moral responsibility for any debt incurred—"on" the program, and without any success whatever.

What would happen to small American farmers if all of them had to exist under the overlordship of the FSA, as thousands of them now do?

What has the FSA done that the landowners of the South have not done for generations? Certainly the private individual would not lend a four bit negro or a sorry white man six or seven hundred dollars.

The FSA and other alphabetical organizations have driven the last of the supply merchants to the wall. They have taken from the banks the opportunity to earn interest on depositors' money by loans to farmers. They have about relegated free enterprise to the limbo of forgotten things.

As far as we are concerned, we have had the last to say about the FSA. We will turn the FSA over to the Farm Bureau, and do not give two pinches of owl dust which comes out ahead.

Dear Mr. Taylor: evidently there are no 1st, 2nd, 3rd, grade McGuffey Readers for sale in this county. One lady said she had a 4th grade Reader, but that must have been over your head.

A lady referred to one of the charter members of the Ferdinand Club as "horsey," whatever that means.

Grenada needs TWO fire stations. We have the same equipment that we had when Grenada practically ended at Joffa Ditch. Suppose we had TWO fires at once, and this is not improbable.

Be sure to see that your son in the armed forces receives the proper papers from Charlie Worsham that will permit Charlie to register the boy on the new registration now being had in this county.

And, my friend, you yourself had better register if you wish to vote this summer. Old registration books will be discarded. "Is your name written there?"

Col. Kahn still says that his friend, Mike Conner, is going to be the next governor. Col. Kahn has been wrong so many times that maybe his luck will change.

A lady just scraped off 300 miles of irreplaceable rubber on the curb stone. Oh, me, she will soon be walking and will get rid of some of that surplus fanny.

Just started reading "Out of the Night." A fellow who stays out AT night as much as I do will hardly finish such at home.

Well, it looks like Horn and Greenfield will be kept out of devility over the week-end by our job customers, even if it looks like we cannot connect with any of this camp printing business.

FLASH FROM THE LATRINE: road construction at the camp will start next week.

I. O. Pearson would not believe we knew what a latrine was until he looked it up in the dictionary.

Mr. Lawrence J. Phillips, resident engineer (the boy with the long beard in construction) of the Chas. T. Main Company is now on the scene. Where he is going to put the 200 other men in his staff, God knows.

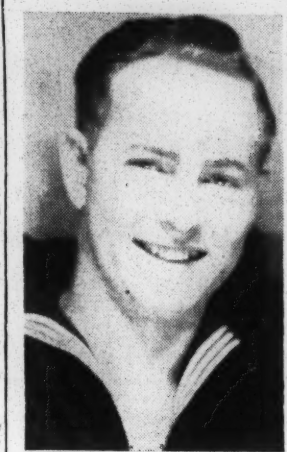

Pvt. Wormack E. Smith, Jr., spent a few days with his parents at Hardy. He is in the Air Corps and stationed in Florida.

Rufus England Invests Naval Pay In Bonds

Rufus England, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack England of the Caderetta community in the eastern part of Webster County, but on William Joiner's Route 4 out of Grenada, recently sent home enough money to invest in a $500.00 defense bond.

He was a graduate of the Spring Hill school, and has been in the U. S. N. eleven months.

Local Red Cross Sends Garments

The local Red Cross Chapter shipped two large consignments this week, according to a report from Miss Jane Young.

The Foreign Relief shipment included 25 sweaters for women; 14 slipover sweaters for men; 80 sweaters for children sizes 2 to 12; 22 pair knitted socks; 7 circular shawls.

American armed forces received: 20 sleeveless sweaters; 12 for the army, 8 for the navy.

Additional contributions included as materials for use in American hospitals: sofa pillows, pillow slips, hot water bottle covers, bedside bags.

Miss Young states that a shipment of garments will be made soon. Small units, such as Grenada Chapter, do not supply bandages, rolled tape, etc., however a new assignment of wool to be made into garments for our armed forces will arrive soon, Mrs. Eli Whitaker is chairman of knitted work for local Red Cross Chapter. The articles just finished were shipped to Red Cross Eastern Area Headquarters at Alexandria, Va., and are re-distributed at the request of camp officers, hospital officials and naval station commanders.

Miss Young states that the knitting being done by those who live outside of Grenada county in localities where there is no active Red Cross Chapter, is greatly appreciated, and that several contributed to the consignment just made are also appreciated.

We are really proud of this splendid report.

SPEAKING OF TAXES

Mrs. Kate Lickfold Woodward, of San Antonio, sent in a copy of a tax receipt which was obtained by her grandfather, George Donkin, from Sheriff D. Robinson, of Yalobusha county in 1847. The real property covered was the buildings now occupied by R. H. Herliog and Dyre-Kent. $1.75 was the total tax on this property, which, by the way, has been in the family at least 100 years. Mr. Donkin must have been a man of great means for he had to pay the enormous sum of $125 personal property.

Mrs. Woodward and her brother, George Lickfold of Tyler, Texas, now own that business property, and, while we did not take the time to look the matter up, we venture to say that they pay at least 100 times as much in taxes as did their grandfather.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the Auxiliary of the American Legion will meet in the home of the president, Mrs. H. H. Cullen. A full attendance is urged. Pub. Chrm.

County Health Unit Matter Postponed One Month

The county board of supervisors at its meeting Tuesday decided to postpone the matter of establishing a county health unit until its next regular meeting in May.

Many people are of the opinion that the establishment of a qualified health unit is absolutely imperative if full benefit from the presence of the army camp can be had by the citizens of the county. Yet, until the need is definitely established and the camp is positively assured the supervisors were reluctant to add to the already heavy expenses of the county the expense of a full-time health unit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

On Monday, April 13, the W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church will meet in the following places: Circle No. 1, in the home of Mrs. Webber; Circle No. 2, at the Church; Circle No. 3, at the Church; Circle No. 4 at the home of Mrs. Joe Brown; Circle No. 5 at the home of Mrs. Struple.

Grenada will be engulfed in a host of people within a short while.

New Absentee Voter's Law Is Now In Effect

Under the new absentee voting law all persons serving in any branch of the U. S. military service and expecting to be absent from his regular voting place on election day may request the county Registrar or municipal Registrar in case of a city election, to send him a ticket, to such point as he may be located, such request to be made 20 days or less before the date of said election.

Receiving the ticket, it is submitted to a commission officer for inspection, then the voter, after making affidavit before the said officer on form enclosed with ticket, that he is a qualified elector, marks the ballot, in secret, seals it and hands it to the commission officer who signs the statement prescribed and mails it as directed by the voter.

The law does not apply to absentees except those in some branch of the military service, who may vote in primaries without payment of poll tax.

LEGION MEETING

The regular meeting of the American Legion will be held at the hut Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Heavy Rain Disrupts Traffic

An unusually heavy rain fell Wednesday and Wednesday night. One of the effects of this rain was the temporary cutting off of traffic on the Peavine railroad, due to the condition at the canal near Avalon. This heavy rain also covered the highway in that area with water.

In recent months the levee, whose objective was to confine Petty-co-cow (that's not the way to spell it—just the way it sounds), to an artificial channel, broke near the highway bridge.

Trying to control God's water is one of the most futile things man ever tried.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Friends:

We think, that after the many hard ships which we are having to undergo, the least thing that could be done in remembrance of the faithful Elliott citizens who are giving up their homes for the cause, would be to name the approaching camp, CAMP ELLIOTT. ELLIOTT CITIZENS.

Spring Luncheon Held At Community House

The Spring Luncheon, staged each year on the first Saturday in April, was attended by approximately one hundred club members on Saturday of last week at the Grenada Community House. The Garden Club members were in charge of all arrangements.

The large assembly room of the Community House was beautifully decorated with white and blue iris and graceful arrangements of Spring. On the wall were arranged vivid patterns of vegetables and the table decorations, including the unique place cards, reflected the vegetable motif. Down the center of the tables were placed pottery jardiniere holding lovely white and blue iris and single clusters of pansies. At intervals on the table, green towels filled with clusters of Spring flowers and tied with attractive ribbons added charm and originality. The place cards were but miniature copies of the large vegetable patterns cleverly arranged on the wall.

Mrs. Jesse Thompson, president of the Garden Club, presided; seated at the president's table were the guest artists and honor guests, included in this group were Mrs. Hugh Clayton of New Albany, guest speaker, Mrs. W. A. Lomax and Miss Gene Markers, pianist; Mrs. E. R. Pleasants and Miss Helen Horton, soloists, and guests of honor, Miss Jane Perry, Mrs. John C. Wade, Mrs. Burleson and Mrs. Velma Neely. These ladies were introduced by Mrs. Thompson and then the presidents, or a club member appointed by the president, spoke briefly concerning the aims, membership and program of their club. Thirteen clubs forming the Council of City Clubs, were represented. The talented speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Hugh Clayton, of New Albany, held the audience spell bound for well over an hour by her perfect presentation of "The White Cliffs" by Miller. Seldom has a Grenada audience had the privilege of hearing one as charming and as talented as Mrs. Clayton, and was most enthusiastic in appreciation and applause. The program committee is to be congratulated on the delightful varied program which included several Grenadians of rare talent. Miss Helen Horton, accompanied by Miss Gene Markers, sang "Ave Maria" by Leon Chavalle, followed immediately by an encore, Miss Markers, talented pianist played Chopin Valse in A Major.

Mrs. Lomax played Polichinelle by Rochinoff.

Mrs. E. R. Pleasants sang, "Thy Raining Eyes" and "A Maid Sings Light" by Macdonell. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lomax.

UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE

By Herbert B. Allen

It is now clearly apparent to the American nation, that there is something seriously wrong with our arms production program. If you are interested in facts, and not in anti-labor propaganda, there is no mystery as to where the responsibility lies for our poor production.

At this point, let me state definitely that the responsibility does not rest on the shoulders of American labor, organized or unorganized. It lies on the shoulders of American manufacturers.

Here are the facts with respect to labor, and to strikes in defense industries. There are seven millions defense workers. In the months of January and February their performance record was 99.97 percent of perfect!

There is no fiction in that record. The figures are from the Federal government. They prove conclusively that the record of American labor is the most patriotic of any section of our civilian population. It is the finest labor record of any country in the world, democratic or totalitarian!

While labor has been establishing this magnificent record, what have our manufacturers been doing? They have been engaged in the greatest sit-down strike of American wartime history. They sit-down against accepting contracts for war equipment because they are not satisfied with moderate profits.

That is why the United States government is forced to give the President unprecedented and extraordinary powers to convert machines to the national service. If you will translate that word "machines" into "manufacturers", you will have an accurate understanding of what is actually going on behind the scenes.

In order to prevent the people of the United States from learning the truth about American industrialists, and their program of profits before patriotism, the newspapers print endless falsehoods about defense workers and defense strikes. These falsehoods are intentional and deliberate. These falsehoods are intended to be a smoke screen to keep the truth from the knowledge of the American people.

Some days ago, the Chicago "Sun" carried a press despatch which reported the destruction of the Allen Cooperage plant in Grenada, Mississippi, with a toll of forty dead and an undetermined number of injured in the wake of the recent tornado.

The figures were so exaggerated as to give a totally false impression of what actually did happen in Grenada. And this is exactly the way in which labor trouble is reported in the American press. In thirty years of traveling over the United States I have yet to see one single labor dispute truthfully recorded in the American press.

With regard to the forty-hour week, these facts may be of interest to such of our readers as prefer truth to pure hokum. The defense industries are not operating forty-hours a week. The average week is forty-six hours.

In certain key industries the average is higher. In shipbuilding the average work week is forty-eight; in aircraft production forty-nine; in marine engines and turbines fifty-one; and in machine tools it is fifty-five hours weekly.

There are two chief bottle necks in our war production program. One is the shortage of certain essential raw materials; the other is the sit-down strike of our manufacturers for "PROFITS BEFORE PATRIOTISM!"

Briefly stated, the record of American labor is far greater than had been hoped for: the record of American industry is running true to its form of World War No. 1. It is abominable—it is a national scandal. That is, it would be a national scandal if the American people knew the truth which the newspapers so carefully shield from them.

General Pershing's name is usually associated with the command of the American Expeditionary Force in France. But the General's brilliant record commenced with his graduation from West Point.

One of his most distinguished services was the pacification of the fanatical Moros on the Philippine Island of Mindanao. This he accomplished with a clever blending of force and diplomacy.

Of humble origin, General Pershing never failed to take advantage of every opportunity to improve his qualifications. While Military Instructor at the University of Nebraska, he graduated from the law school of that institution. This legal education aided him greatly in his administrative duties in the Philippines.

President Theodore Roosevelt desired to recognize Captain Pershing's eminent service to the nation by promotion, and this raised a storm of protest in the Army, and in Congress.

To this day, it is my opinion that the greatest curse in the Army, and in Congress, is the seniority system. The sluggishness of the Army in adapting itself to a 1942 type of warfare is directly the fault of the seniority system which prevents officers of extraordinary ability and aptitude from forging to the front.

In the Congress of 1942 we witness the shocking spectacle of such utterly incompetent men as Walsh of Massachusetts heading the United States Senate Naval Affairs Committee; Reynolds of North Carolina the Military Affairs Committee; and Connally of Texas the Foreign Affairs Committee. This is Democracy at its very worst.

Is it any wonder that we have inefficiency, stupidity, and lack of foresight in high places? Under a system which brings to the top only those who have been around longest, can we reasonably expect efficient, intelligent and spirited action, either in the Army or in Congress?

Is there in these United States ONE great corporation, one great bank, one great insurance company, or one great railroad that is run by executives who hold their positions merely because they have been longest in the employ of their organizations?

In private life, when a man is being considered for a position of great importance, the employer does not ask, "How long have you been in one position?" He wants to know something a great deal more to the point: "What have you DONE? What can you DO?"

At this critical moment nothing could be more worthy of our most serious consideration than the words of Theodore Roosevelt during the controversy over Captain Pershing's promotion. In his message to Congress December 7, 1903, praising Pershing's achievement, and criticizing our inadequate system of promotion and reward for meritorious service, the President declared—

"The only people who are contented with a system of promotion by mere seniority are those who are contented with the triumph of mediocrity over excellence!"

Yet with all the power of a dynamic President, it took over three years to force Pershing's promotion through. Why? Because he had to be promoted over the heads of 862 army officers. Fortunately for the nation Teddy Roosevelt stuck to his guns, and the American Expeditionary Force had "Black Jack" Pershing.

The magnitude of our problems require the most intelligent and aggressive leadership in the Army and in Congress, to formulate plans, direct policy, and enlighten public opinion.

The President has recently had a partial reorganization of the General Staff of the Army. But it has been carried only one-third the way necessary to enable the Army to function with smooth efficiency in the top ranks.

It is high time for the United States Senate to drastically reorganize its obsolete and antiquated rules. These rules should be so liberalized and reformed as to permit our most efficient and best qualified Senators to become chairmen of important senate committees.

As President Theodore Roosevelt so wisely declared, "The ONLP people who are contented with a system of promotion by mere seniority are those who are contented with the triumph of mediocrity over excellence!"

On the Chicago radio, every imaginable product from birdseed to permanent waves is being urged upon the public as an aid to national defense. Furriers even claim that four thousand dollar mink coats, being conducive to good health, are in the interests of "national defense."

But the ultimate has been reached by a New England textile manufacturer, advertising in The American Funeral Director. He urges the undertakers to adopt a new material he has developed for burial shrouds, so that we may maintain "the American way of life!"

I wonder when, and where, the American way of life is supposed to end. Does it continue beyond the pearly gates—or is it that OTHER place to which the advertiser has reference?

Finish Course At Grenada Defense School

The following boys have completed their course of instruction at Grenada Defense School, most of them having ready taken jobs at an aircraft factory in Baltimore. Hugh Mitchell, Percy Barnett, Granville Hamby, Jas. Horton, Andrew L. Minga, Thomas W. Locke and Guy E. Howell. One student has been accepted as an instructor at a large mid-western air training school and is leaving in the near future. A number of additional students have made application for aircraft jobs and should be leaving in the near future. At the present time over twenty boys have gone to work in aircraft factories after having received their training at the local school. Several others have secured jobs that were made possible due to their knowledge of this work.

A number of boys are finishing their work within the next several days and these vacancies will be filled out of the Mississippi Employment Service's recommended list. Applications must be made with your local employment service before becoming eligible for the training. Anyone not subject to A-1 classification will be taken. Girls above the age of seventeen and to thirty-five are eligible for training. Most women will be placed in nearby industries upon completion of their work.

High School seniors both boys and girls are invited to make application for training. Help build the planes to whip the Japs. Classes are held twice-four hours a day except Sundays. Six hours daily instruction may be secured by each trainee. Approximately 250 hours are required for boys and 144 hours for the girls.

THURSDAY, APRIL 9, 1942

Let's Be Selfish About It, Then

If the City of Grenada is not enforcing the milk and meat ordinances IN ITS OWN CODE for the protection of its own people, then, for goodness sake, let's be selfish about the matter and enforce them so that our people can sell around 30,000 pints of milk per day to the soldiers and sell all of the available fresh meat.

Fairness To Negroes

The white people of this country make and enforce the laws of this country. The negroes, have nothing whatever to do but to obey. Therefore, it behooves the white people to be fair with the negroes. Just dismissing him, his rights and his problems by saying contemptuously "Oh, he's just a damn nigger" does not solve anything.

We white people rule the negroes, and God Almighty Himself is going to hold the white race responsible for the justice of our rule.

We are not advocating political and social equality, as everyone knows. We are merely pleading that the negro, who composes 60 percent of the population of our country, be treated fairly and justly—as happily he is in most cases. The negro knows, respects and loves the good white man, and, conversely, the good white man, knows the good negro and respects his rights. Most often when a negro is treated unjustly he is treated unjustly only because his skin happens to be black and the skin of his oppressor happens to be white.

As we have said many times, there is a place for the white man and a place for the negro. The substantial members of both races do not seek to cross the line. It is only the ignorant, vicious and malicious individuals of both races who cause the friction.

We hope the problem of race will not become another impediment to the unity that this country and this state so recently need in wartime.

Be just to the negro. Respect his rights as you will FORCE him, if necessary, to respect yours.

P. S. All my people and my wife have tried to be just to the negro. Just last Saturday a fine looking negro boy, about 18 years of age, came into the office with one of our farm hands. I did not recognize him until the tenant said "That's the boy that Miss Maple saved his eyes", and then I recalled the puny little fellow rapidly becoming blind thru some eye trouble which my wife (the doctor) and consultant of our tenants) cured by sustained applications of some simple remedy.

Ten Commandments Of Gardening

To the Loyal and Diligent Ministers of Washington County, Mississippi:

The health of a race or nation depends on the health of its people, and the health of an individual depends to a large extent upon what he eats. As a means of helping safeguard the health of your community, and contributing to the national defense, I submit ten commandments of gardening, and hope you preach on one at a time of these for the next ten Sundays.

THE BLESSING:
Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments and do them and ye shall dwell in the land of safety.

The land shall yield her fruit and ye shall eat your fill and dwell therein in safety. Lev. 25: 18-19.

1. Plant a Home Garden—"Behold a man went forth to sow." Matt. 13:3-9.

2. Provide for the Family Food Supply—"But if any provide not for his own and specially for those of his own house he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel." Tim. 5:8.

3. Preserve—"Go to the ant, thy sluggard; consider her ways and be wise . . . provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest." Prov. 6:6-8.

4. Seek Valuable Information—"Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth then I will liken him unto a wise man . . ." Matt. 7:24-27.

5. Provide Plenty—"And his substance also were seven thousand sheep . . ." Job 1:3.

6. Increase Your Income—"Cast thy bread upon the water; for thou shalt find it after many days." Ec. 11:1.

7. Sell Your Surplus—" . . . And Joseph opened storehouses and sold to the Egyptians; . . . and all the countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn . . ." Gen. 41:56-57.

8. Sow Good Seed—"The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field . . ." Matt. 13:31-32.

9. Cultivate Your Crops—"He that tilleth land shall have plenty of bread . . ." Prov. 28:19.

10. Waste Nothing—"And they did all eat and were filled; and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full." Matt. 14:20.

THE CURSE:
And if you will not hearken unto me and will not do all these commandments . . . your strength shall be spent in vain for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield her fruit, and I will bring the land unto desolation. Lev. 26:14-20-42. (Substance only—not quoted verbatim.)

Thanking you for your cooperation,

Yours truly,

Potatoes For Rubber?

Mickle Clark won five dollars from the Chicago Sun for submitting the following suggestion, but told us we could have it free:

There are many things suggested as a possible source of rubber, but I have never noticed that anyone has mentioned the sweet potato vine. Now this vine has an abundance of milky juice which is like rubber when it dries. It would yield an abundance compared with some of the things that have been mentioned.

It's As Simple As That!

By HERBERT B. ALLEN

While I listen to discussions about Democracy, my thoughts often stray to some of the shining examples of Democracy in action. Three Democrats who come frequently to mind are the aristocratic English statesman Pitt; the democratic Scottish poet Robert Burns; and our own great humanitarian Abraham Lincoln.

Few toasts to Democracy have been so eloquent as Pitt's famous tribute: "The poorest man may in his cottage bid defiance to all the forces of the crown. It may be frail; its roof may shake; the wind may blow through; the storms may enter, the rain may enter—but the King of England may not enter. All his forces may not cross the threshold of the ruined tenement."

The magnificent genius of the rustic poet, Bobbie Burns, coined the very watchword of liberal Democracy with his ringing denunciation of "man's inhumanity to man."

And what definition of Democracy could be more lucid than the immortal words of the humble Abraham Lincoln: "government of the people, for the people, by the people."

Democracy is a remarkable system of government that, like the Christian religion, has never been given a fair trial. What I have observed, within our own borders, appears to be very similar to government of the people, by a few of the people, for a few more of the people! And it has worked none too well.

Since the days of George Washington, the history of the United States has been one long succession of battles between the privileged few on the one hand, and the champions of public rights on the other hand. To date the score is very much in favor of the privileged few. A Thomas Jefferson, an Andrew Jackson, an Abraham Lincoln, or a Woodrow Wilson are not born in every generation!

There is nothing new under the sun. You will find Democracy in the teaching of Jesus; you will find Fascism in the action of Caesar.

The names of political systems may change; conditions and circumstances may change; but fundamental principles do not change. There are only two major divisions of political systems. One is based upon English law—the other is based upon Roman law.

Under English law, the government of the people is the business of the PEOPLE. Under Roman law, the government of the people is the business of the RULERS. English law is Democratic; Roman law is anti-Democratic. It's as simple as that!

Great Britain and the United States are modern exponents of English law. Our system is called Democracy. Germany and Italy are modern exponents of Roman law. Their systems are called National Socialism and Fascism. In theory the two systems could exist side by side; but in practice they have become irreconcilable!

English law assumes that wisdom resides in the people. Roman law assumes that wisdom resides in the rulers. History very clearly demonstrates that both are in error. As Shakespeare has well said—"What fools these mortals be!"

The predicament into which Hitler and Mussolini have plunged Germany and Italy definitely demonstrates the fallacy of the wisdom of so-called "super-men." The predicament of the United States and Great Britain currently demonstrates the fallacy of the wisdom of the people.

For more than a thousand years the Anglo-Saxons have been struggling to free themselves from the oppression and the control of their rulers: first from kings claiming the "Divine Right" to rule, and later from their successors, the upholders of the right of special privileges for the favored few.

No persons of the twentieth century can imagine the weight of authority that the magic phrase "By Divine Right" possessed for our early ancestors. The religious and superstitious implication of that royal phrase made the weight of decisions by so powerful and august a legal tribunal as the United States Supreme Court appear trivial by comparison.

Up until the time that the Magna Charta was forced from King John by the Noble, some eight hundred years ago, the English people endured with the rest of the world, a Roman system of law and government. But since its birth at that time, English law and government has been gaining steadily in power and prestige.

Today the nations living under English law are the envy and admiration of those nations living under Roman law. Therefore those nations living under Roman law have decreed the destruction of English law as a world force. They are crusading against Democracy!

To maintain our right to live under English law, we are once again called upon to fight, as we have been compelled to fight down through the ages. Yesterday we fought Julius Caesar, William the Conqueror, Napoleon Bonaparte and Kaiser Wilhelm, to name a few at random. Today it is Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini that represent the pressure of Roman law upon us.

Our freedom and liberty were obtained by the shedding of much blood. They shall be retained by the shedding of much more blood. There is no alternative.

So, to use the terminology of political science, we are fighting for English law, or Democracy. But as individuals, we are fighting for something much more personal and intimate.

We are fighting for whatever we feel in our hearts when we look aloft and see those glorious emblems of the English speaking world flying above us—the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack.

There is nothing new under the sun. Like the generations that have gone before us, we are fighting for the old RED, WHITE AND BLUE. It's as simple as that!

Speaking at a convention of the Georgia Bureau Federation recently, that humorless comedian, and cheap politician, the Governor of Georgia, had this to say in commenting on the labor shortage in agriculture: "I will say this, and let the newspapers give me the devil for it, that if you have trouble with labor, just find yourself a convict and let me know."

Editors have learned, in the painful school of experience, that in attempting to smoke ignorant fools out of public office, they too often provide them with exactly the publicity required to keep them in office.

Such men as Eugene Talmadge come to the surface from the mire of illiteracy and ignorance. They are the product of an un-Christian, anti-democratic political system that cannot be adequately described in language fit for publication. Poor Georgia!

Penshun "Pizen" is going to lay many a politician low this August.

Lester Williams is urging editorially that Hugh White run for the Senate. Better save him for the governor's race.

Most people accept increased subscription rates as they do increases in costs of everything else. We could lower our standards to save expense, but we refuse to do this when all reasonable people will not object to an increase in cost of subscriptions commensurate with our own increased costs and with our own loss of revenue from advertising.

Let's bury our enmity for England until after the war. United strongly, we have a helluva fight ahead, divided we will lose.

We are mighty happy that the soldiers of the present war have sheets, pillow cases and mattresses, while we old soldiers were given cloth sacks and told to pick sackfuls of sedge grass. They are better housed, better fed, better clothed, and have lots of vacations. We never knew what it meant to come home just for a pleasure trip. More power to the soldiers of this war.

Grenada friends learn with regret of the departure on Friday, April 10 of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. (Billy) Brown and little son, who will reside in Jackson. Mr. Brown is a M. P. and L. employee.

Mrs. Lawrence Phillips and Mrs. Stuard Highley, both of Jackson, the formerly of Boston, Mass., were in Grenada on Monday seeking homes for their families. They will reside here during the construction of the Grenada camps and expect to come here about May 1st.

RETAIL TRADE

(Mrs. W. W. W. Adv. Mgr.) A subject of paramount interest always, is that which deals with the buying of clothes, whether for utility wear or for formal occasions.

A positive wardrobe need of every one is a shoe wardrobe of types that will be the basis for comfort and service, and may we add for beauty. The classic types can be worn for a long time without style obsolescence. The shoe merchants of Grenada can sell you a classic shoe—also the service shoe (which means foot health), that you can wear endlessly. For the duration, men and women will require shoes of perfect fit, of substantial material and of attractive styles. Go to your local shoe merchant and ask him for your ideal shoe. He is the one person locally who is really interested in your shoes, and is certainly most interested in securing for you, a comfortable shoe of style and durability.

It looks the Farm Bureau and the FSA are fighting each other. We view that fight very much as we would view a fight between the Germans and the Japs. There is too damn much organization and too damn little work among the farmers.

A farmer does not need a county agent to tell him what to do. He can lay awake an extra hour any night and figure out more to do than he could possibly do in a lifetime.

The City and the County are going to have to be very circumspect in adding tax burdens (which are hard to shed). The county has made notable progress in debt liquidation, while the City (the entirely solvent) has been going steadily further in debt. There is bound to be an end somewhere.

Aint they sweet.

HOW THE New War Conservation Order AFFECTS TELEPHONE SERVICE

To conserve vital war materials, the War Production Board has limited replacements or additions to existing telephone plant equipment.

As a result, some types of equipment and services normally provided by the telephone company will not be available to civilians as heretofore.

The order is expected to save many thousands of tons of vitally needed rubber, copper, zinc, lead, iron, steel and other scarce metals. Southern Bell is complying with the order by doing its utmost in every respect to achieve the desired results in saving materials.

Within the limitations imposed by the order, the Company and its more than 27,000 men and women will continue in every possible way to furnish you dependable, efficient service.

We know that we may depend upon your wholehearted cooperation.

HOME FOLKS SPEED WAR EFFORT

THIS IS AN "ALL-OUT" WAR; everybody has a hand in its conduct. One of us points the direction. Another puts his shoulder to the wheel. Still another does his duty—and a full one—by merely stepping out of the way.

Which is why we of the Illinois

Central would like to thank some unsung heroes among the home folks. We'd like to pin a few congratulations on those among our customers who are helping the nation by helping us to render better and faster transportation. Such transportation is an absolute essential for the support of the boys in camp, as well as those who are over there—and there—and there.

Worthy of special mention because the general public so seldom sees their contributions are the shippers and receivers of freight who are speeding up their loading and unloading of cars, forecasting their needs, loading cars more heavily, organizing for better shipping and greater efficiency in freight practice all around.

In passenger service, too, our patrons are showing their desire to further our war effort in a number of ways. Noticeable on our trains is the tendency to travel with less baggage—to take along only those things that are essential to the trip. This means more room in baggage cars, coaches and sleeping cars; greater comfort, more pleasant and less expensive travel.

Passengers are additionally helpful, too, by making reservations well in advance, by taking space that is immediately available rather than waiting for preferred space, by arranging their itineraries to avoid periods when travel is heavy, such as week-ends. Thanks are due especially for the prompt cancellation of reserved space when change of plans must be made.

The Illinois Central is determined to continue to provide the most comfortable, safe and convenient transportation it possibly can throughout this great emergency. The consideration our patrons are so liberally giving us is immensely helpful to that end.

Men Between 45 and 65 To Register April 27th

Following issuance of President Roosevelt's proclamation for the April 27 registration of men between the ages of 45 and 65 under the Selective Service program, officials of the state headquarters began mapping plans for handling the fourth registration in Mississippi.

Details of the registration are being handled by Lieutenant Carter Sterling USN, attached to the State Selective System, who said school teachers again will be asked to cooperate in the program. Registration will be between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m.

President Roosevelt's proclamation setting April 27 for the registration, states that all male citizens of the United States who were born on or after April 28, 1877, and on or before February 6, 1897, must register in the new program.

The President's proclamation states that:

"Every male citizen of the United States is required to and shall on April 27, present himself for a submittal to registration before a duly designated registration official or selective service local board having jurisdiction in the area in which he has his permanent home or in which he may happen to be on that date if such male citizen on February 16, 1942, has attained the forty-fifth (45) anniversary of the day of his birth and on April 27, 1942, has not attained the sixty-fifth (65) anniversary of the day of his birth, and has not heretofore registered under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940.

Belgrade Employees 100 Percent In Bond Buying

One hundred percent of the 12 white employees and the 80 odd colored employees of the Belgrade Lumber Company buy Defense Bonds and Stamps each pay day. DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB

The Duplicate Bridge Club met in the lovely home of Mrs. R. G. Brown, Jr. Tuesday afternoon for games. The living room was attractively decorated with iris and spirea and three tables were arranged for games.

Non-member guests included were Mesdames E. L. Morrow and O. R. Lilly, and winners of high score were Mrs. L. E. Noble and O. R. Lilly.

Mrs. Brown served delicious sandwiches and Coca-Cola at intermission.

ENTERTAINS BAND MEMBERS

On Tuesday evening, following a band concert in the High School auditorium, members of the band were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Anderson, when Brannon Anderson and Roberta Allen entertained delightfully in their honor. Roberta is band sponsor and Brannon is head drum-major of the GHS band. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Ward Allen assisted with the reception of the guests and Mesdames Annie Anderson, Anna Catherine Allen and Marguerite Finney assisted with the serving of refreshments. Delicious sandwiches, cakes and Coca-Cola were served. Guests other than band members were Prof. and Mrs. John Rundle and their son, Mr. John Rundle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dollarhide and Roger, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gerard spent Wednesday in Memphis.

Mrs. T. T. Yeager left Wednesday afternoon for Memphis to visit her daughter, Miss Dorothy McCracken, who is in the Baptist Hospital.

LOTT CALLS

A wedding of much interest occurred in the Gore Springs community last Sunday afternoon when Mr. Woodrow Callis and Miss Ora Bell Lott motored over to the pastor's home at Providence and were happily married. The Rev. J. N. Spikes officiating. They were accompanied by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blakely.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lott and is a member of the senior class at Gore Springs this year.

The bride and groom are very much loved and appreciated in this community.

They will leave Wednesday for Connequot where the groom is now employed.—Contributed.

Mayor R. W. Sharp Issues Proclamation

The Boy Scouts of America has long been recognized as a great character building organization. Like the Red Cross it is chartered directly by Congress and the President of the United States is its "Honorary President." Many of our leading citizens have known its teachings and daily practice its virtues.

The Delta Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America has rendered splendid service to Grenada for some years. Our citizens welcome an opportunity to support this great humanitarian work. The official time for gathering the means for carrying forward this work is April 14, 15, 16.

As Mayor of the City of Grenada, I do hereby proclaim April 14, 15, 16 as the official time for the Boy Scouts of America campaign. And I, R. W. Sharp, Mayor of the City of Grenada do hereby recognize C. V. McKell as General Chairman of the Grenada, Mississippi Campaign.

The Boy Scouts Oath and Scout Law is the basis of Scouting. Every person within our bounds should have a part in carrying forward this work for the citizens of the future.

Witnessed by my hand and sealed this 8th day of April and in the year of our Lord, 1942, at Grenada, county of Grenada, State of Mississippi.

R. W. SHARP, Mayor.

Mrs. J. C. Morgan will accompany Mrs. Avert to Washington, D. C. and will visit relatives there. Mrs. Ford accompanied them to the medical meeting in Memphis Thursday afternoon.

ELECTION MEMBER GRENADA COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

As required by law the trustees of the common and consolidated schools of Grenada County will hold the annual meeting at the court house in Grenada, Mississippi, Friday, May 1, 1942, at 2:30 p. m. to elect a member of the Grenada County School Board to the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Mr. Guy Fite from Beat Two of Grenada County, Mississippi. Respectfully submitted,

SAM J. SIMMONS, Jr.
By Mrs. Laura P. Merritt.

Bridge Champion Attends World Tournament

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Boone left Wednesday evening for New York City to attend the World's Championship Masters Individual Tournament of Bridge players.

At the New York meeting last year, Mr. Boone finished 22nd in a field of 36 players and was winner of the Vanderbilt Bridge Trophy.

Mr. Boone will again enter for more honors and his friends here feel confident of greater success. While in New York, the Boones will visit their mother, Mrs. Mac Williams.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

The Twentieth Century Club held an open meeting at the Community House on Tuesday afternoon of this week, when club members and a large group of club women of the city met to hear the distinguished Professor

Fackett, head of the Department of Economics at the University of Mississippi, lecture on "The Consumers Program." Professor Fackett spoke for an hour and the audience gave his lecture most careful and appreciated attention. His talk was, of course, most timely as now, as never before, care must be taken in conservation of all things, especially over articles used in the home and by the American family. Professor Fackett's lecture was just what we needed at this time to remind us of our part in National economy.

Mrs. J. K. Avert, president of the Twentieth Century Club, presided and there was no business session held at this meeting.

MRS. AVERT TO WASHINGTON

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Avert left today (Thursday) for Memphis to attend a medical meeting in session there. Dr. Avert will return home Friday, but Mrs. Avert is to continue her journey on to Washington to attend a National U. S. O. meeting, called by Paul V. McNutt on Sunday, April 12th at 2 p. m. Mrs. Avert is a member of the USO executive board of Mississippi, and has worked indefatigably for the Grenada Chapter. Upon her return we will have an article concerning this great organization which serves our fighting forces with a recreation program which all of us recognize as most vital in the Nation's War effort.

There is a good deal of high class latrine dope going the rounds in Grenada. Some of it follows.

Inasmuch as the construction of the camp has been officially "authorized," whatever that means, there is little doubt that the camp will be built soon.

Apparently the delay in securing water of the right quality and of sufficient quantity has been overcome as Dame Rumor says the water getters will be here four or five months.

If the procurement of water was a deciding factor, it seems that the matter of water supply should have been attended to FIRST. But that MAY not be the government's way.

The final plans must be submitted to the U. S. Engineers by April 15th at which time contracts will be let.

If somebody could get the contract to collect the stakes already driven, he could get enough cord wood to fire a cotton gin three seasons.

It looks like the local printers and stationers have been horned off from orders at the camp. It may just look that way.

There will be a huge wooden water tank placed on top of the hill for which Duck Hill is named.

For a wonder, Greenfield did not "take" Good Friday.

A man saw a letter from a big official stating that the contracts for the camp erection will be let on April 15.

At an instant's notice, the Land Acquisition Department of the U. S. Engineers, can begin condemning land. Their data for Area "A," the cantonment area, is complete.

It is possible that the farmers in the area outside the actual cantonment area may have time to plant, cultivate and harvest a crop before their land is condemned.

If you have to move and want to buy more land, read our classified column which offers several tracts of land. The old lady, who has 360 acres in the Delta part of this county, might be induced to sell some land.

Judged by the keen eye of an old observer, some of the van-guard—the ladies of the evening—have arrived in town.

This is not latrine dope, Major Wade the head of the whole outfit, is mighty well liked here, for he is an officer and a gentleman under all circumstances and in all company, and can keep himself composed under any circumstances.

The construction of the roads and bridges will begin real soon, in order that material can be transported to any part of the area in any kind of weather.

This is the end of the latrine dope.

In spite of her physical afflictions, Miss Willie McCaslin drives her own car to town. You might conceivably keep a squirrel on the ground, but not the indomitable Miss Willie.

Do not forget to apply for your Homestead Exemption by June 1st.

Here's a headache for you. City property on which taxes have not been paid will be sold. The books are now open.

Due to the indulgence, good nature and forbearance of our creditors and to good luck, we have satisfied the sheriff and the city tax collector.

Here's another headache. You must pay your Social Security quarterly installments this month.

One headache does not affect me, that of buying car tags.

Dear Priority Board: please let the Bulldog editors have a new typewriter ribbon.

If the rubber shortage bothers you, think of the people who are bothered with the wheat shortage.

"Miss" Maggie Winter, of Holcomb, helped up over the hill a dollar's worth recently.

Selma came down to the Belmont a few minutes one afternoon last week.

Jack Robinson, secretary-manager of the Northeast Mississippi Council dropped in for a social call Sunday. He was enroute to Oxford from Duck Hill where he visited his friends, the Scotts.

NUMBER THIRTY-SEVEN

FSA SUPERVISOR PRESENTS THE FSA VIEWPOINT

The following letter, written by Mr. R. L. Sistrunk, county supervisor of the FSA, speaks for itself.

I know that you, being a good newspaper man, always want to know and give expression to both sides of any important public question. That has been one of the traditions of the free press of America. You want to be informed so that you can uphold the policy you decide is best for your community and country, and so you can keep the public correctly informed.

My purpose in writing you is to give you some facts on two things: first, the part that the low-income farm family must play in the war food production program, and, second, what the Farm Security Administration is doing to help those farm families. These facts will, I believe, be of interest to you.

There are 6,000,000 farmers in the nation, 1940 census reports show. In 1939, approximately 48 percent of the farmers received less than $800.00 in gross earned income. Today, the Department of Agriculture estimates that there are 2,600,000 low-income farm families. As you well know, these families could not, because they didn't have what it takes in tools and financing.

The United States Department of Agriculture estimates show that the large farmers are almost up to maximum production and that further increases may bring about a shortage of farm labor. Already estimates reveal that there will be a farm labor shortage this year with attendant wage increases. Realizing that this condition exists, President Roosevelt and Secretary of Agriculture Wickard have placed the responsibility for producing a large part of this needed food increase on the small, low-income farmers because these farm families have the labor.

Our experience with low-income farm families indicates that these families can do the work, provided they have help. Most of them do not have enough of the basic production materials or work stock, and many need land. They don't have money to buy seed and fertilizer, and many of them need advice and year-round assistance and credit. This army of small farmers can produce an essential part of the nation's increased food requirements and at the same time improve their own income and health.

Mr. Frank Kraft, who was carried to the hospital in Memphis Friday, is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kersh's guests Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Tafford Lance and children, Mrs. Ellie Lester and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Aldridge spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCrary at Swan Lake. Mr. and Mrs. McCrary returned home with them. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Davis joined them Sunday night for a fish supper.

Mr. J. H. Kraft, of Chicago, was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kraft a few days last week.

WOMAN'S CLUB

An organization known as "The Woman's Club" has recently been formed in the City of Grenada.

The present emergency through which our country is passing, has given it birth.

Its primary purpose is to render what service it can, both locally and nationally and its meetings will be devoted to an effort to obtain such information as will enable its members to render a greater and more effective service.

Every woman in Grenada and Grenada county who is in sympathy with the purpose and aim, is eligible for membership in The Woman's Club of Grenada.—Contributed.

MAJ. WADE TELLS LIONS OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

Last Friday the Lions Club enjoyed having as their guest Major John Wade and Lient. Jim Emmons of the Triangular Division Camp and Mr. John Sistrunk, local FSA representative.

Major Wade gave a very interesting talk on the Philippine Islands including his stay there from 1926 to 1929, he related many interesting features of the Islands and the Philippines and gave a word picture of the Bataan peninsula where American forces retired to maintain a foothold on Luzon Island.

The Club is very glad to have as their guest this Friday Mr. M. D. Burleson, Real Estate Project Manager of the Triangular Division Camp and Cpl. White Whitaker, Jr., Camp Bowie, Texas.

Mr. Burleson will give a short address on an unannounced subject and Cpl. Whitaker will give an address on his experience in the Army and Camp Life.

It is the desire and intention of the Lions Club to be of what assistance it may to the Triangular Division Camp and its personnel.—Contributed.

FRIENDSHIP HOME DEM. CLUB

Mrs. R. L. Taylor and Mrs. Mildred Taylor were co-hostesses to the members of Friendship Home Demonstration Club for the April meeting.

The president called the meeting to order. Mrs. James Purdie called the roll in the absence of the secretary, which was answered by "What makes a living room more livable?"

Mrs. B. L. Taylor read a most remarkable paper, "Ten Commandments of Gardening."

Plans were made for the celebration of the club's first birthday, Saturday April 18, in the home of Mrs. E. V. Aldridge. Contestants entering the costume dress contest remember to be present at next regular meeting.

The club voted to send Mrs. Monroe James, who has been absent due to illness, a pot flower.

A motion picture dealing on reality possibilities for Grenada county was shown. "More to the News" was won by Mrs. B. L. Taylor.

Delicious refreshments were served. Examine our wonderful paper. Much land is offered for sale or rent. A lot on fifty acre adjoins the county seat. If you are interested, see what you can do about it and let us know what you want through the Advertiser in the City.

Our estimated speakers were Mr. Sistrunk, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

The Perfect Understanding

By THAYER WALDO
(McClure Syndicate—WNU Service.)

THERE was a calm straightforward look in her gray eyes, but no hint of hardness.

"Listen to me," she said: "it's just that I—oh, I don't know how to say it! I've been trying for a month to make you understand."

She rose, turning from him. Steve watched her, thinking that she was the most utterly desirable thing earth and life could offer. Yet now hope no longer lived.

"I'm sorry, Lillian," he said; "you should have told me sooner—for your sake, I mean. It's all right—really; I see everything."

"Steve," she told him, "you're one grand guy."

"Stop that!" he answered, and went out.

The set was ready when he reached the sound stage upstairs. Before a little cabin was a yard and carefully laid out flower garden; around it all ran a picket fence. Steve appraised the whole with professional instinct and approved.

Jim Lewis, handling first camera, was adjusting his tripod in front of the set. Steve's own instrument already stood in place.

Soon Lillian and Geoffrey Newton, her leading man, appeared. This sequence, Steve recalled, involved only the two of them. They played man and wife—a poor young Southern farmer with his bride from the North.

They were in the yard by the garden, he kneeling to touch fondly some blossoms and tell her of their growth since spring. Lillian stood, a hand caressingly on his shoulder, her eyes loving but faraway and a trifle brooding. In a moment Newton glanced up, saw the look, and rose swiftly to clasp her in his arms. And with her response to that, Steve suddenly knew the answer to many things.

This man loved Lillian, and she him. That was as clear as if he had listened to a confession of it from them both. He thought back over little occurrences between them which had meant nothing to him at the time. Why, it had all been there right along for him to see! It—

A scream broke sharply in upon his morbid reverie. He straightened, remembering with sudden anxiety that this was not in the script. Then, catching one glimpse of Lillian's terrified face through the open cabin doorway, he sensed, rather than knew, what had happened. While he mused they had gone inside; Lillian's first act was to light a lamp, and—

Before the thought could reach completion, a sheet of flame swept out from beneath the structure's flimsy roof. Again he saw the girl, now frantically beating her dress; again heard her cry out. Then he was over the fence in one leap and plunging forward.

A crackling inferno faced him. Steve sprang inside, and collided with a body. Through the smoke and shimmering heat, he had a dim vision of Geoffrey Newton's face, twisted and insane with terror. The fellow lurched at him again, trying madly to reach the door. Steve sent his left fist crashing into Newton's chin; the actor fell backward and lay still.

Lillian was just slipping to the floor as Steve grabbed her. Swinging her across a shoulder, he dashed out.

He put the girl into waiting arms, ran back inside, and brought forth the still unconscious Newton. Lillian, on her feet and nearly composed once more, stepped quickly forward at sight of the limp form, then checked herself and crossed to Steve. In her eyes as she stopped before him was once more that mingling of gratitude and admiration, now intensified a thousandfold.

"We both know," she said slowly, "that there aren't any proper words for a time like this. But I wish—oh, I do so wish there were something I might do to show you how I feel. Isn't there, Steve?"

For what seemed to him a wonderfully long while he stood and gazed into the measureless depths of two spheres that were gray as a summer's dawn is gray. What he saw there may not be told, nor what the blood of his body answered. But that it all came to something less than enough is certain, for when the long while ended, he grinned at her and said:

"Sure. Go on over and help them bring Jeff around. He was trying to get to you when I barged in. A piece of two-by-four fell and got him in the head."

Then Steve turned away. The eyes of Jim Lewis met his, but in these there lurked no mystery. They were very knowing eyes.

"Nice work, Steve," he said easily, and produced a flask. "Here—better have a drink after that."

Sweet Potato 'Eyes'

For better seeing in blackouts, sweet potatoes are furnishing stick candies rich in vitamin A. This vitamin source is cheap and natural.

North Texas State Teachers college shows this candy and many other sweet potato products. There is flour for bread and pastries, giving a slight potato sweetness to the food, starch for postage stamp mucilage, a livestock food said to have 90 per cent the nutritive values of corn.

HAY EXCELLENT ROTATION CROP

Yields of Crops Vary With Hay Production.

By EARL JONES
(Extension Agronomist College of Agriculture, Ohio State University.)

Of No. 1 importance in the rotation program of most farms is the matter of getting good stands of hay. All things considered, hay is perhaps the most important rotation crop. The yields of other crops vary directly with the hay production. Better sod resulting from good hay stands means better corn and wheat crops.

These facts were borne out in a series of four year rotation tests conducted on county and district experiment farms in Ohio by the college of agriculture.

Courtesy U.S. Department of Agriculture.
Wisconsinite Allen Hetts, 19, with purebred Holstein cow that won a first in the state 4-H dairy clubs.

Typical of the results obtained were those at the Meigs county farm where the crops included corn, wheat, alfalfa, clover, and timothy mixtures. Four different types of fertilizer treatment were used. The application included 150 pounds per acre of corn applied in the hill and 300 pounds per acre to wheat. One plot was left unfertilized and the results on each of the other four were checked and compared. All plots were equally limed before the experiments were instituted.

More Hay: More Grain.

The plots that produced the most abundant hay crops likewise yielded heavier crops of grain.

Best results were obtained from a 2-12-6 fertilizer analysis plus manure, which produced increases of 36.5 bushels per acre in the corn yield, 15.9 bushels of wheat, and increases of 2,863 and 2,080 pounds of hay per acre respectively.

A similar analysis, without the manure treatment, yielded increases of 27.1 bushels per acre of corn, 12.9 of wheat, and 2,401 and 1,689 pounds per acre of hay. A fertilizer treatment of 0-14-6 produced increases of 20.9 bushels per acre of corn, 11.9 bushels of wheat, and 2,103 and 1,310 pounds of hay. An 0-20-0 analysis yielded increases of 7.1 bushels of corn, 11.5 bushels of wheat, and 1,850 and 1,230 pounds of hay per acre.

Conclusions from these tests indicated that fertilizers carrying nitrogen and potash in addition to phosphorus returned much better results than those carrying superphosphate alone. The use of manure supplementing commercial fertilizer likewise proved its value.

Poultry Ration Substitute

Looking for a substitute for dried skim milk in the poultry ration? It has been found that fish meal and alfalfa leaf meal, 50 pounds each, can substitute for every 100 pounds of dried skim milk in the ration of chicks up to six weeks of age, and that the birds will not be injured in any way by the substitution.

Now that dried skim milk is practically impossible to get because of shipments abroad, results of the research efforts should prove of great value to poultrymen who are trying to produce more eggs than ever.

The original dry mash formula for chicks contains 5 per cent alfalfa leaf meal, and although the amount is greatly increased by the substitution, it will in no way prove detrimental and the chicks will eat it readily.

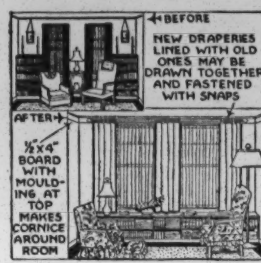

Busy Bossy Comes Through With Plenty of Milk.

Enough milk was produced in one year by one Holstein cow owned by the Pennsylvania State college to supply amply the needs of a person from birth to the age of 30.

The prize Holstein is long on name as well as production, being officially recorded as Penstate Veeman Hilde. She produced 22,941 pounds of milk with 716.5 pounds of butterfat during the year.

True Greatness

It is great, and there is no other greatness—to make one nook of God's creation more fruitful, better, more worthy of God; to make some human heart a little wiser, manlier, happier, more blessed, less accursed.—Carlyle.

The True Role

The true role, in determining to embrace or reject anything, is not whether it have any evil in it, but whether it have more of evil than of good.

There are few things wholly evil or wholly good. Almost everything, especially of government policy, is an inseparable compound of the two, so that our best judgment of the preponderance between them is continually demanded.—A. Lincoln.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When making pie, bake the left-over crust on inverted muffin tins to make tarts for the next day's meal.

Metal stains on linens or clothing usually can be removed by covering them with vinegar and salt, bleaching them in the sun, then rinsing them in warm water and washing the usual way.

Boiled haddock is very tasty when served with mustard butter, a mixture of butter and prepared mustard well blended.

If you have a modern styled kitchen choose curtains of plain colored chintz or crash. Decorate each with three half-inch bands of bias tape sewed on the top and bottom. Use a color that accents the scheme of the kitchen. Sew ivory colored bone rings on each curtain and run them on a curtain rod.

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on discomfort after meals, stomach upset, bloating, dizziness, gas, coated tongue, and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many Doctors have given pepsin preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin, as directed on label or as your doctor advises, and feel world's better. Get genuine Dr. Caldwell's.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.
You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

In Suits or Satin, Wartime Brides Are Lovely as Ever

to specify her preferences, and it is readily to be seen that the bride pictured here made a most excellent choice.

THERE'S big news in the realm of fashions for brides. We used to speak of "the season for brides." Well, there is no special season now, for the entry of an increasing number of wartime brides into the picture has changed all that. Weddings are apt to happen any time, anywhere, these days.

If you are wondering about the fate of the bride in gleaming satin and masses of billowy tulle who has always been the pride and joy of the fashion world, you may rest assured she will grace the springtime picture as radiantly lovely and picturesque as ever. From style centers everywhere comes the news that, while there will be a continuous program of informal weddings because of rush orders to soldier grooms to return to their posts of duty, yet there is definitely a continued trend to big weddings.

For the formal bride who is fortunate enough to have a pretentious wedding in the time-honored way, the exquisite gown pictured in the foreground of the above illustration is a masterpiece of all that goes to make up a "picture." There is infinite charm in this stately wedding gown of gleaming ivory white satin, enhanced with a yoke of Alencon-type lace. The snug-fitting basque is prettily sleeved with short puffs of the satin which add to the youthful technique employed all through the costume design. The Victorian bouquet complements the quaint charm of the gown and the short bridal veil. This bridal bouquet is of white roses and pom-pom chrysanthemums, with a deep red rose as a touch of romantic modernism. The bride's flowers are traditionally the groom's responsibility, but it is the bride's privilege

The bride who is real news this spring is the bride who is going to be married in a simple little suit in a hurry-up wedding because of army regulations and the uncertainties of the soldier-groom's recall to headquarters. Thus a new expression, "suit wedding," has been coined, and to meet its requirements designers are giving of their best to create costumes that will make the simple wartime bride as lovely and charming as the stately bride who is privileged to enjoy all the pomp and glory of a more formal wedding.

Ingenuous designing resulted in the suit dress pictured to the right in the above illustration. It is a triumph of soft tailoring and is beguilingly feminine and definitely fashion-right. It boasts two lives, for it serves both as a suit and as a charming dress when the jacket is removed. This New York creation is of navy wool with attached blouse top of red crepe, gaily printed in vivid blues and greens which matches the jacket lining. A jaunty hat of white fabric trimmed with red and white fringe completes the ensemble. The gloves and footwear are perfect selections.

For a young girl who is planning a quiet wedding the simple crepe frock with its cunning jacket effect, as shown centered in the above picture, is ideal. Of either navy or black (black with lots of white is very smart), it will look girlish and "sweet" relieved by deep white lace half sleeves. The lace is removable. However, the high note of charm is the matching lace hat which gives the "pretty bride" look as convincingly as any arrangement of orange-blossoms and tulle that might be devised.

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Bright Squares

The new prints are superb in color and technique, and they have the look of uniqueness about them which every woman covets. Here, illustrated above, is a print that qualifies on every count as a winner. This New York creation of black crepe, simply fashioned, is scattered with large red and white squares. The skirt is marked by softly gathered front fullness. The bodice is graceful and easy fitting. The wide belt, with its huge buckle, is of black patent leather. Of especial interest is the hat, for it is characteristic of an important style trend. Its flattering fan-pleated brim is bordered on the upper side with navy grosgrain ribbon. The white linen-weave straw is very smart.

Short of Materials? Designers Say 'No'

To those engaged in apparel industries has come an unprecedented challenge to make the adjustments necessary to carry on a program of conservation of materials in accordance with wartime priority rulings. The reaction to this challenge is most heartening. There apparently will be no lack of fashion interest but really a gain in new ideas and new ways of making the most of materials at hand.

Silk or no silk, nylon or no nylon, we are going to have flattering and wearable hosiery of the sheerest of sheer lisle or fine gauge rayon. As to "pure silk" silks, what is being achieved with rayon and other synthetics is a revelation.

The new side-saddle drapes are so amazingly slenderizing they are destined to enjoy definite style prestige.

Gray and White
Watch the fashion parade and note the preponderance of gray suits, dresses and coats. Gray has become such a hobby with fashion we will be seeing more of it than we have seen for many a season. Gray hats with white accents are outstanding, as is the all-white hat with a gray suit.

Frankly Feminine
Hat styles tend to be frankly feminine. Even the huge brims are simple and becomingly manipulated. Some of the newer little hats are mostly a labyrinth of bandeaux with which to anchor tiny forward-pitching flower pieces to the head.

THE MISSION OF THE SEVENTY

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:1-7, 17, 21-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest.—Luke 10:2.

Working with Christ for the salvation of men has been the privilege of believers since the time He chose the twelve. We learn today that there were at least seventy more whom He considered dependable and worthy to be sent forth. Knowing how brief was the time before His death, the Saviour called, commissioned, and cared for them as they went two by two, personally to evangelize "in every city and place."

I. Sent to Serve Christ (vv. 1-3).
Prayer is back of the calling of laborers for Christ. God waits for His people to lay before Him the need, and to enlist His grace in moving upon the ones who can best serve Him. There is mystery here which we cannot fully understand, but it is perfectly clear that prayer is the power which has been given to the church with which to "move" the hand of God. The reason the laborers are so few, even in our days is evidently, then, because there has been so little prayer.

Observe that the Lord sent His servants "two by two" so that they could encourage and assist each other. Christian work is best done in Christian fellowship. The "star performer" or the "lone wolf" may be acceptable in business or social life, but he has no place in Christ's program, unless by His special call and guidance for some particular task, such as pioneer work.

He sent them to go "before His face"—what a glorious place to be! That means that He was watching over them, expecting them really to "labor" for Him. But notice also that in loving thoughtfulness they were—

II. Sustained by Christ (vv. 4-7).
It is well when workers go out that they have proper backing. We speak of the "board" which is behind our missionaries. That is right and proper, but above all there must be the assurance of the provision and protection of Christ.

They were not to be concerned about money. Christ had already moved upon the hearts of His people to see that the laborer had "his hire"—which was food and shelter (v. 7).

Time is what life is made of, and the servants of Christ were not to waste it in lengthy oriental salutations (v. 4), or going from house to house to be entertained, thus losing much time and strength.

Nor was he to strive or become angry if some one did not receive him and his greeting of "peace" (v. 6). In any case his word would return in blessing upon himself (v. 6), and he could go on to another house. The point of all this is that the expectation of the Christian servant is from his Master, Christ, whose business requires diligence and haste (1 Sam. 21:8b).

The outcome of such service is revealed in our third point.

III. Successful Through Christ (vv. 17, 21-24).

The seventy returned rejoicing that even the demons were subject to them in Jesus' name. He still has power over the demons of our day. Would that the church wielded that power more effectively!

While it is a great thing thus to see the power of God at work, Jesus told them in verse 20 that an even greater thing is to have one's name written in heaven. That means that we ought to be much concerned not only about having our own names written there, but the names of all those whose lives we touch—at home, at work, anywhere.

The secret of the disciples' victory is found in the statements which Christ in all humility and honesty made about Himself (vv. 22-24). He is the one to whom "all things are delivered"—unlimited in authority and power. The mystery of His person and work is not something man can think out or fully comprehend (how foolish have been the attempts to do it!) for He is God. The fact that the Father had revealed these things to the seventy humble, ordinary men caused Christ to magnify His Father's name in praise and prayer. Spiritual insight (vv. 21, 24) is something only God can give, and often He can give it in full measure only to humble and lowly men. "Men like D. L. Moody, who became spiritual giants, were usually humble men from lowly walks who gave themselves wholly to God" (B. L. Olmstead).

Need to Slow Up
The world is going too fast! Even the Church needs to slow up for it is attempting too much in social programs and is losing spiritual poise in many places. Paul said to the Church, "Put on the whole armor of God." The whole armor takes time to put on, yet it is dangerous to leave off any part of it.—Rev. A. E. Gregory.

PATTERNS SEWING CIRCLE

Yoke-Front Dirndl Frock.

A NEW and different yoke treatment brightens the top of the "teen-age" frock which we present today. A clever detail, this yoke carries a front opening for the bodice and in addition gives that originality which younger girls seek in their fashions. Pattern No. 1520-B is bound to be regarded highly by the younger set anywhere, because it also presents that very popular feature—the dirndl skirt—in this case a dirndl skirt with a snug fitting belt which ties in back with sash ends.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1520-B is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 8 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch material, 8 yards ric-rac. Send your order to:

Mose Knew Not What Lucy Talked Of, but How!

Before the court on wife-brought charges of desertion and non-support, Mose Brown meekly admitted his guilt and offered nothing in extenuation except that the lady talked too much.

"That's no excuse for desertion, Mose," said the judge. "The law gives a woman the right to talk all she wants to."

"Yassuh, Judge. I knows it do. Only Lucy she never stop talkin'. She keep it up stiddy, mo'nin', noon and night, till I can't stan' it no mo'."

"She does? What does she talk about?" inquired the court.

"Jedge, suh," Mose said, "she don't say."

The outcome of such service is revealed in our third point.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

This week's chapel program was composed of the Field Meet Contestants in the Music Department. Several songs were sung. The Glee Club sang "The Bulldog," girls quartet, "The Dedication," and Caroline Whitaker, "Evening Star."
 The other contestants are Julie Marie Gundry, Freshman piano section, Stella Irby, Sophomore piano section, Mary Jane Daigre, piano section, and Dot Talbert, Senior piano section.
 The student body led by the Glee Club sang "God Bless America," and "America."

G. R. PROGRAM

The Girl Reserves met on Thursday morning in the auditorium. The program was one of worship.
 The speakers and their subjects were: Anne Odum, Loyalty to God; Lavern Wilson, Beauty; Mary E. Cowan, Obedience; and Lucy Moss, Our Best For Him or a Yielded Will.
 Throughout the meeting several songs were sung.
 We congratulate Lucy on her splendid program.

The National Honor Society met last Monday afternoon at three o'clock at a regularly scheduled meeting, with Louise Aveni in charge. The initiation of the new members in a ceremony in chapel was discussed. The program decided upon will be presented in chapel Wednesday, April 8th. Parts were then given out to the members and after a practice period the meeting was adjourned.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Music notes flowed out of GHS auditorium all Saturday morning and a good part of the afternoon. Saturday was Music Festival and all the singers, pretend singers, pianist, and pretend pianists came to show forth their ability. We haven't space or time to tell how each school came out, so we'll just tell you what Grenada did.
 Our mixed chorus sang the song, "The Bulldog" and was rated excellent. Only one school rated above us who was rated superior. This school was Sallis. Miss Donaldson did a fine bit of directing and Dot Talbert did a creditable work of accompanying.
 Our quartet was also rated as excellent. Our girls, Catherine Herring, Sara Lee, Stella Irby, and Jean Thomas, really did their "Acquella" harmonizing fine.
 Our freshman entry in music was Julia Marie Gundry. She won over all of her opponents. She was graded excellent. That was the highest grade in this as there were no superior grade given.
 Stella Irby's rating was "good." Since there was no sophomore contestant that rated higher, she too, rated a first place.
 Dot Talbert rated good. Only one girl rated above her. Several others were also rated as good but her grade was higher than the others.
 In this way the judges point out the students' defects and we think it really beneficial to the pupil. We think our music team did fine and that it showed that they had practiced long and hard hours.

GHS RATES HIGH IN TENNIS FIELD MEET

It was just that old good school spirit that put our tennis team through the pace down Duck Hill way Saturday. The coaches and the team arrived about ten and the games were started.
 Munford Rhett, GHS boys' single contestant played last year's district champ and after a good game was defeated. Honey Honeycutt, Munford's coach, was very pleased with the results and says that no one will defeat him come next year.
 James Thomas and Rowe Rhett, GHS boy double team, won over all other contestants in that field, and came out as district champs. Their coach Rogers Pleasant was perhaps the world's happiest man on that day—Saturday.

Anne Duncan on very short notice agreed to play in the girls' single contest. Anne was defeated by the girl who won in the finals and is now district champion.

Lou Aveni, coached by Ruth Morrow, and your scribe C. Whitaker coached by Lou Cullen, came through with the girls' district championship.

As a whole this year's team was rather successful in all ways. The girls and boys double teams are eligible to go to the state meet which is to be held in the near future.

LITERARY FIELD MEET RESULTS

If any other school in our district makes the remark "GHS has the big head over that literary field meet results"—you just tell them that if we have it we certainly have a right to have one. Didn't our school make 72 or more points at the meet with the next highest school getting 30 odd points? Guss you're all eager to know how each individual came out so here goes. The following sages knocked places as shown:

 Latin I—Guy Robinson, 1st place.
 Latin II—Margret Green, 1st place.
 Plane Geometry—Catherine Herring, 1st place.
 Algebra II—Ralph Blaylock, 1st place.
 English III—Lucy Moss, 1st place.
 Physics—Leon Province, 1st place.
 Home Ec.—Polly Parker, 1st place.
 Typing—Dot Talbert, 1st place.
 American Government—Anne Duncan, 1st place.
 Algebra I—Walter Vick, 1st place.
 English IV—Lou Cullen, 5th place.
 English II—Ruth Morrow, 4th place.
 Bookkeeping—R. Pleasant, 2nd place.

 Biology—Mary E. Cowan, 2nd place.
 English I—Willie E. Campbell, 3rd place.
 General Science—Blanton Duncan, 2nd place.
 American History—Rooke Moore, 3rd place.
 Every entry from our school placed in the upper 5th as you can see. Smart folks, these GHS students!

BAND NEWS

All the solo and ensemble contestants will go to Greenwood Saturday, April 11, for the Solo and Ensemble Contests to be held in the Greenwood High School. Those participating are: Brannon Anderson, Catherine Herring, Ruth Lee Morrow, and Rogers Pleasant, in a B flat Clarinet quartet; Lynn Rose, Brannon Anderson, Johnny Mitchell and Warren Robinson in a mixed clarinet quartet; Lynn Rose, Mary Elizabeth Cowan, Bobby Alexander, and Patty Stockard in a Saxophone quartet; Bobby Alexander, Mary Elizabeth Cowan, Catherine Herring, S. B. Cowan, Frances Herring and Warren Robinson are to play solos.
 S. B. Cowan, Jay Gore, Albert Graves comprise the cornet trio. Jay Gore, Albert Graves, Billy Parham and O. D. Spratlin make up the cornet quartet.
 The band is now preparing for the State Band Contest which is to take place on April 25, in Jackson.

CHINESE VISITS SCHOOL

The last special assembly program of the 1942 school session was put on in good style by two very interesting Chinese—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Young Lee. The senior class sponsored this program.
 The program was chiefly a lecture on China by Mr. Lee. Mrs. Lee also told of her life in China. They play two Chinese musical instruments, one of which was a small instrument called a piano. It is so unlike our piano that one could hardly see any resemblance.
 Mr. Lee is supposed to have one of the best voices of any Chinese in America. He sang only one song which was a Chinese folk song. All in all it was a very interesting as well as instructive feature.

DIRT

Mary Lib and Marguerite were spired to the show Thursday night by two State men. Marguerite's date was a local man—Frank York, and Mary Lib's was some tall, dark, and handsome boy. We haven't seen before.

It looks as if we're really gonna have a Junior-Senior feed after all. We seniors are mighty happy about it; too and to show the Juniors how we appreciate it, we are going to eat everything on our plates.

Ed McCormick and Billy Semmes saved the English IV A class from sheer destruction Wednesday by their presence. If the senior class didn't have anything better to do with their money, they would serve each boy some cookies.

Lula Mae McCormick was seen Friday night with a certain Coffeeville boy. She says he has a twin brother.

DRIVING COSTS

YOU can't get a new automobile for private use, for love or money and even used tires are going to be scarce, if you can get them at all. But, apart from these obvious facts, the American motoring public is facing a drastic price rise in nearly every department which has to do with the operation and maintenance of a motor vehicle.

 Your attention is invited to an ad by Butch McKnight which states that homestead exemption applications must be made by June 1st. Men in service have special privileges with respect to the application of this law. See Butch; too long to explain here.

 The recent legislature made a fair record—just 250 new laws, none of which anyone will pay any attention to.
 Sheriff and Mrs. Hayward have heard from their sons, Herbert and Joe Bob, both of whom are getting on all right in Asiatic waters.

"OF V WE SING"---

V--- the symbol of Victory over the German vultures and the Jap Vandals also stand for

VIM VIGOR and the old VITALITY

Like everyone else we are Victims of Priorities on Virtual Necessities for Vital Defense.—but, we are Virile enough not to be Vanquished while there is still a Vast Variety of Building Products available for Valid repairs on Venerable Houses to put them in the Vogue.

If we Ventured to Volunteer as your House Repair Valet and matched your dollars against our Versatility Vice-Versa—the chances are we could Vindicate your good judgment by Voicing a suggestion or two subject to your Veto, without too much Violence to your Purse.

For Instance: Have You Considered . . .

- Vitrolized Oil Paint
- The Virtues of Vacant Attic Space
- The Voids in Your Roof Valleys
- Venetian Blinds for Rooms with a View
- Wood Veneer Panelling
- An Enclosed Veranda
- Storm Sash for Window Vents that Vex
- Attic Ventilation and Insulation
- Variation in the Monotony of Drab Interiors
- Visible Means of Support for your Foundation
- Vigil against Leaky, Celar Walls.
- Vulnerability of Shingles to Vagrant Winds
- Vibration of Floors
- Voids in Steps, Stairs and Sidewalks
- Vantage of Extra Closet Space
- Velvet Black Screen for Blackouts
- Bomb-proof Vaults for Temporary Vacations
- Vitrified Clay Products.

If you are prey to Vague misgivings and on the Verge of becoming Vocal about it, we'd like to Vamp your Vote for our skilled Veterans to do the job. Volume means Viduals and Vegetables to us and Vending is our Vocation. You'll have no Vain regrets . . . Whether we build you a Veranda or a Viaduct

ALSO . . . Our Vans and Vehicles are still Vested with Tires for Hauling and Trucking

It is likely that someone in your Vicinity can Vouch for us as we have done work in all parts of the Village.
